Anniversary of the Abortion Act 1967: The Day for Life in 2017 falls on Sunday 18th June and I hope that each parish, chaplaincy and convent will organise a service of prayer and reflection on Saturday 17th July to pray for the dignity of human life from conception to natural death; I will lead such a vigil at a service of prayer in St Barnabas' Cathedral on 17th July. There will also be a vigil in St Barnabas' Cathedral on Friday 27th October, the fiftieth anniversary of the Act receiving the royal assent.

Every Sunday Mass at Deeping St James for one year will be said for the healing of Richard Hawley through the intercession of Blessed John Henry Newman.

The Year of Mercy
 As we reflect on the past year and its legacy we recall the teaching of St. Thomas Aquinas that although Mercy is the spontaneous product of Charity, yet it is to be reckoned a special virtue adequately distinguishable from the latter. When we look at the works of mercy listed below, can we honestly say that in the past year we have done our best to fulfil this teaching of the Church?

- Corporal works of Mercy
- feed the hungry
 - shelter the homeless
 - clothe the naked
 - visit the sick and imprisoned
 - give alms to the poor
 - bury the dead

- Spiritual works of Mercy
- To instruct the ignorant.
 - To counsel the doubtful.
 - To admonish sinners.
 - To bear patiently those who wrong us.
 - To forgive offenses.
 - To comfort the afflicted.
 - To pray for the living and the dead.

Although the Year of Mercy ends today it is never too late for us to begin our lives of Mercy through Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Please pray for the sick especially
 Margaret Kline, Martin Dowse, Brian Davies, Chris, Janet Shield, Neil Timms, Marie Lourdes Lina Saintas, Adrian Howarth, Verity Elliott, Father Dakwan (Father's father), Joe Blacoe, Dorothy Sterry-Blunt, Pauline Smith, Robert Carter and all those who do not wish to be named here.
