MARYS MEALS There is now a box in the porch at Bourne and leaflets with a list of suitable items. If you would like to help, you need just give one item, which can be good second hand, apart from the toothbrush, toothpaste and soap of course. No toys please as this can cause problems with customs, but a small tennis sized ball is allowed.

OBITUARY ANOUNCEMET

With gratitude to God for a life well spent, we announce the calling to glory of Mrs Agnes Monica Carter who was a member of Our Lady & St Guthlac's catholic Church Deeping St James for many years before moving to Norwich to live with family. She passed on on the 13th of June and was brought back and laid to rest at the Deeping St James Cemetery on Friday the 23rd of June 2017. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen (please, do not hesitate to book masses for her and her family).

Confessions in Bourne on Saturday

Mornings Please be aware that confessions are heard between 9.15am to 9.45am, anyone arriving in the Church after 9.45am will not be able to have confession before mass.

JOURNEY MERCIES Please keep me in your prayers that God will guide my going and my coming back as I travel to Nigeria for the installation of the new bishop of Ogoja my home diocese. It a canonical requirement that all of us attend the installation and pledge again our obedience to him and his successors. After the installation, the bishop will meet with me to review my mission and to decide if I am to continue serving here in the diocese of Nottingham or to return to Nigeria or to be redeployed to where I may be most needed. Pray that any decision he makes will be to God's glory. I am going away from the 3rd to the 18th of July. The installation is on the 7th of July and as you know it takes
