God Calling:- Give, give, give
 Give abundantly, Feel that you are rich. Have no mean thought in your heart.
 Of love, of thought, of all you have, give, give, give.
 You are followers of the World's Greatest Giver. Give of time, of personal ease and comfort, of rest, of fame, of healing, of power, of sympathy, of all these and many more. Learn this lesson, and you will become a great power to help others and to do mighty things.
 Life, earth-life is a battle. A battle in which man will always be the loser unless he summon Eternal Life-Forces to his aid. Do this and all that has power to thwart you slinks back defeated.
 Say, in the little as well as big things of life,
 "Nothing can harm, nothing can make me afraid. In him I conquer."
 Stand invincible, face to the foes of life.

St. Peter Claver was born at Verdu, Catalonia, Spain, in 1580, of impoverished parents from ancient and distinguished families. He studied at the Jesuit college of Barcelona, entered the Jesuit novitiate at Tarragona in 1602 and took his final vows on August 8th, 1604. While studying philosophy at Majorca, the young religious was influenced by St. Alphonsus Rodriguez to go to the Indies and save "millions of perishing souls." In 1610, he landed at Cartagena (modern Colombia), the principle slave market of the New World, where a thousand slaves were landed every month. After his ordination in 1616, he dedicated himself by special vow to the service of the Negro slaves, a work that was to last for thirty-three years. He laboured unceasingly for the salvation of the African slaves and the abolition of the Negro slave trade, and the love he lavished on them was something that transcended the natural order. Boarding the slave ships as they entered the harbour, he would hurry to the revolting inferno of the hold, and offer whatever poor refreshments he could afford; he would care for the sick and dying, and instruct the slaves through Negro catechists before administering the Sacraments. Through his efforts three hundred thousand souls entered the Church. Furthermore, he did not lose sight of his converts when they left the ships, but followed them to the plantations to which they were sent, encouraged them to live as Christians, and prevailed on their masters to treat them humanely. He died in 1654.
