St. John, named Chrysostom (golden-mouthed)

on account of his eloquence, came into the world of Christian parents, about the year 344, in the city of Antioch. His mother, at the age of 20, was a model of virtue. He studied rhetoric under Libanius, a pagan, the most famous orator of the age. In 374, he began to lead the life of an anchorite in the mountains near Antioch, but in 386 the poor state of his health forced him to return to Antioch, where he was ordained a priest. In 398, he was elevated to the See of Constantinople and became one of the greatest lights of the Church. But he had enemies in high places and some were ecclesiastics, not the least being Theophilus, Patriarch of Alexandria, who repented of this before he died. His most powerful enemy, however, was the empress Eudoxia, who was offended by the apostolic freedom of his discourses. Several accusations were brought against him in a pseudo-council, and he was sent into exile. In the midst of his sufferings, like the apostle, St. Paul, whom he so greatly admired, he found the greatest peace and happiness. He had the consolation of knowing that the Pope remained his friend, and did for him what lay in his power. His enemies were not satisfied with the sufferings he had already endured, and they banished him still further, to Pythius, at the very extremity of the Empire. He died on his way there on September 14, 407.

Alive! Nottingham Diocesan Youth Event

Are you ready?
 Dear young people of the diocese,
 I would like to invite you to join me for a joyful, Spirit filled evening of prayer and praise, good music, food and fun on Saturday 16th September, 7pm-9.30pm at Radcliffe College Sports Hall. It's an occasion to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. It will also provide an opportunity to all young adults from across the Nottingham Diocese, to gather together to encounter the Lord afresh, to be renewed in the strength and guidance of the Holy Spirit, and to be helped to bear witness to his love in your families, study and work places. I very much look forward to meeting you then, and please now keep this event in your prayers
 May God bless you

+ Bishop Patrick

Please pray for the sick: Margaret Kline, Martin Dowse, Brian Davies, Chris, Adrian Howarth, Verity Elliott, Father Dakwan (Father's father), Pauline Smith, Mr Thomas, Sylvia Fleming and Matthew Gallagher.
