Raffle tickets
 The printer has printed books of 50 tickets instead of 10. Nearly all books were distributed on Sunday morning. More have been ordered but if you have the large books and are unable to sell them PLEASE could you bring them back so that they can be redistributed as soon as possible.

A very humble plea for donations
 As you may have noticed there have been new and expensive PA systems installed in both Bourne and Deeping at a cost of £7000+. This is £2000 over budget. Any donations however big or however small would be most gratefully received toward the cost of this most necessary equipment. Thank you and May God bless you Enormous thanks to all who have donated so far. You are on your way to heaven!

Envelopes for the November Dead list are available in the Porches of both Churches.

Hugh of Lincoln was the son of William, Lord of Avalon. He was born at Avalon Castle in Burgundy and was raised and educated at a convent at Villard-Benoit after his mother died when he was eight. He was professed at fifteen, ordained a deacon at nineteen, and was made prior of a monastery at Saint-Maxim while visiting the Grande Chartreuse with his prior in 1160. It was then he decided to become a Carthusian there and was ordained. After ten years, he was named procurator and in 1175 became Abbot of the first Carthusian monastery in England. His reputation for holiness and sanctity spread all over England and attracted many to the monastery. He admonished Henry for keeping Sees vacant to enrich the royal coffers. Income from the vacant Sees went to the royal treasury. He was then named bishop of the eighteen year old vacant See of Lincoln in 1186 - a post he accepted only when ordered to do so by the prior of the Grande Chartreuse. Hugh quickly restored clerical discipline, laboured to restore religion to the diocese, and became known for his wisdom and justice. He was one of the leaders in denouncing the persecution of the Jews that swept England. In 1190-91 He went on a diplomatic mission to France for King John in 1199, visiting the Grande Chartreuse, Cluny, and Citeaux, and returned from the trip in poor health. A few months later, while attending a national council in London, he was stricken and died two months later at the Old Temple in London on November 16. He was canonized twenty years later, in 1220, the first Carthusian to be so honoured.

Please pray for the sick: Margaret Kline, Martin Dowse, Brian Davies, Chris, Adrian Howarth, Verity Elliott, Father Dakwan (Father's father), Pauline Smith, Mr Thomas, Sylvia Fleming, Helene Currell, Anne Bostock, Terry Westwood, Robert Carter, Matthew Gallagher and Joyce Willis
